Accomplishments

1. Teaching at schools: Mr. Williams completed a month of teaching five days a week, providing age and culture appropriate English education to Thai youth. He developed his own curriculum and teaching strategy to effectively engage the classroom. The majority of these students came from underprivileged backgrounds. Mr. Williams worked to instill confidence within them by having them practice public speaking. Additionally, Mr. Williams collaborated with the school teachers to identify what elements of the student's education could be improved. Mr. Williams taught O-Net (Thai standardized test) based curriculum to 8th and 9th grade students to prepare them for an academically rigorous test.
2. Working at the Subdistrict Administrative Organization: Mr. Williams worked at the subdistrict organization for a period of two months. Mr. Williams helped aid in two recycling pickup programs where staff members drove around the community member's houses to collect glass, metal, and plastic materials in order to promote sustainable living. Additionally, he attended multiple youth soccer camps and actively aimed to promote good sportsmanship. Mr. Williams helped at a child's daycare aged 2-5 years old for 40 hours and presented English related material.

For Federal Employers/Educational Institutions

Eligibility for Service Credit

Pursuant to section 5(f) of the Peace Corps Act 22 U.S.C 2504 (f) as amended, any former volunteer employed by the United States Government following his or her Peace Corps Volunteer service is entitled to have any period of satisfactory Peace Corps Volunteer service credited for purposes of retirement, seniority, reduction in force, leave and other privileges based on length of federal government service.
